

Workshop Program

Edited Volume on Digital Media and Anti-Corruption

17-18-19 January 2022

Online via Zoom

First Day – Monday, 17th January

13:30-14:00 (GMT +1) - Welcoming session

14:00-15:30 (GMT +1) – Session one

Alice Fubini, Beyond data journalism and data activism. Informative activism in the struggle against corruption

Discussant - Philip di Salvo

Germán Bidegain, Anti-corruption and transparency civil society organizations in Uruguay: the challenges of fostering an agenda when the attention is elsewhere

Discussant - Manoel Gehrke Ryff Moreira

Anwesha Chakraborty, Populating collective action frames with human and non-human actors: the case of anti-corruption web platform, I Paid a Bribe, India

Discussant - Oleksandra Keudel

Second Day – Tuesday, 18th January

12:00 -13:30 (GMT +1) – Session two

Moiyen Chowdury, Hope and despair: Paradoxes of Anti-corruption initiatives and Social Media Realities in Bangladesh

Discussant - Alice Fubini

Dale Mineshima-Lowe, Involving citizens through multi-platform strategies: Transparency Watch in Macedonia

Discussant - Antonio Braighi

Oleksandra Keudel, Same Same But Different: Using Digital Platforms for Accountability in Education Sector When Corruption Is An Exception or A Norm

Discussant - Ester Sigillò

14:00 –16:00 (GMT +1) – Session three

Ester Sigillò, Anti-corruption 'from below' and the role of digital media in contexts of regime's change. The cases of Tunisia and Algeria

Discussant - Moiyen Chowdury

Manoel Gehrke Ryff Moreira, Cat-and-Mouse Game: Digital Technology and Electoral Corruption in Colombia

Discussant - Oksana Huss

Antonio Braighi, The process and fate of hackathons against corruption in Brazil

Discussant - Germán Bidegain

Nils Köbis, Christopher Starke and Julia Forjan, The promises and perils of Artificial Intelligence for bottom-up approaches to anti-corruption

Discussant - Fernanda Odilla

Third day – Wednesday, 19th January

12:00-13:30 (GMT +1) – Session four

Oksana Huss, Overcoming the limited access order: A comparative analysis of e-petition platforms in Estonia and Ukraine

Discussant - Dale Mineshima-Lowe

Philip di Salvo, Digital whistleblowing platforms for anti-corruption: The Transparency International Italia case

Discussant - Anwesha Chakraborty

Fernanda Odilla, From concerned citizens to civic bots: a longitudinal perspective on digital media and the bottom-up fight against corruption in Brazil

Discussant - Nils Köbis

14:00.15:00 (GMT +1) – Closing session and steps forward