1. Academic activities carried out at the host university

Please give a brief description of the academic activities performed at the host university and the knowledge received thanks to the training emphasizing on your performance and the outcomes.

I had several meetings and did a job shadowing at the economic faculty, specifically in the departments IR, tourism and economics.

I received know how and information on the following subjects:

- Curricula development
- Selection of adequate subjects
- The European credit point system
- Module descriptions
- Quality Assurance
- Teaching methodologies
- Student mobility
- Course evaluations

2. Your stay at the host university

Please describe your stay and personal experience at the host university, e.g. interaction with local staff including fellow professors and researchers.

The host university warmly welcomed all of us as international guests. I felt well received, integrated into the daily life and well taken care of. The professors and researchers were very kindly, closely and warmly open to show us their institution and they shared their knowledge and experiences to us. They arranged public transportation, some activities outside of the university and the lunches in the university canteen.

3. Returning to your home country

Please describe how you plan to apply the knowledge and experience acquired during your mobility upon your return to your home country.

The knowledge I received during my stay is very relevant for my home country (Myanmar). At the moment we are trying to improve our quality assurance processes as well as to update our curricula. But more importantly we will open a new master program, the Master of Hospitality and Tourism Management, in the next year (2020). The information I received in Granada will help our department to develop the new master program successfully.

I hereby certify that all of the information I have provided is complete and true.
