

TRANSPPOSITION OF EU DIRECTIVES PROTECTING RIGHTS OF ACCUSED (SUSPECT)

The CrossJustice Platform as a Tool to Resolve Cross-Border Problems

Wrocław, 18 June 2021 (online event)

09.00 - 09.10 Workshop's Welcome - Dr Karolina Kremens (UWr) - Leader of the Polish project team

09.10 - 10.25 Panel I - How to ensure an access to a lawyer in Polish criminal proceedings?

- moderator: Professor Jerzy Skorupka (Judge of the Court of Appeals in Wrocław)
- Radosław Baszuk (lawyer)
- Dr Katarzyna Wiśniewska (lawyer, Jagiellonian University)

10.25 - 10.35 Break

10.35 - 11.50 Panel II - The role of the court in the effective implementation of the rights of the accused (suspect) in the light of the EU directives

- moderator: Professor Andrzej Sakowicz (University of Białystok)
- Dr Maciej Fingas (lawyer, University of Gdańsk)
- Professor Małgorzata Wąsek-Właderek (Supreme Court Judge)

11.50 - 12.00 Break

12.00 - 13.30 Panel III

- Dr Karolina Kremens, Dr hab. Wojciech Jasiński (University of Wrocław) - Objectives and methodology of CrossJustice Project (Knowledge, Advisory and Capacity Building Information Tool for Criminal Procedural Rights in Judicial Cooperation financed under the Justice Programme 2018)
- Dominika Czerniak, Dorota Czerwińska (University of Wrocław) - How to use CrossJustice's online platform to solve a cross-border criminal trial problem? Practical Training on the CrossJustice Platform

13.30 - 13.45 Closing remarks

