KU LEUVEN

ENCODE Conference
Multilingual and Multicultural Digital Infrastructures for Ancient Written Artefacts

When? November 2, 2021 (13:30-18:00 CET)
Where? Virtually via Microsoft Teams

Conference Programme

13:30 Welcome (Mark Depauw & Tom Gheldof)
13:45 An overview of Multilingual & Multicultural Digital Infrastructures for Ancient Written Artefacts (Tom Gheldof)

14.20 Virtual coffee break

14:30 The Trismegistos platform: from database of Graeco-Roman Egypt to an interdisciplinary portal of the Ancient World (Mark Depauw)
15:20 The MPIWG Library Digital Infrastructure + RISE and SHINE: an API-based Infrastructure for Multilingual Textual Resources (Kim Pham & Pascal Belouin)

16.00 Virtual coffee break

16:10 Papryi.info: Accomplishments and Challenges (James Cowey)
16:50 CapiTainS: How the Formulae - Litterae - Chartae Project uses the CapiTainS suite to publish its data (Matthew Munson)
17:30 Conclusion on issues and challenges of maintaining digital infrastructures (Tom Gheldof)

ENCODE
BRIDGING THE <GAP> IN ANCIENT WRITING CULTURES
ENHANCE COMPETENCES IN THE DIGITAL ERA

https://site.unibo.it/encode/en
More information? Tom.Gheldof@kuleuven.be