

Agenda

CALC Working Group - Legislation and Artificial Intelligence - Meeting 10

Friday, 29 November 2024 – 1 hour 15 minutes

Zoom link: <https://us04web.zoom.us/j/75130949474?pwd=FGE1i5LrKJYt7WG2c2mZLkUTr3xc1e.1>

No.	ITEM	Time allocation
1.	Welcome to the Meeting The main aim of the working group is to share ideas, expertise and experience on the use of AI in drafting practice in a collegial and safe environment. The ideas can include drafting legislation or other material.	5 minutes
2.	Presentation – Professor Monica Palmirani Monica Palmirani, full professor of Computer Science and Law at Bologna University, School of Law, Italy. Graduated in Mathematic, Ph.D. in Legal Informatics and IT Law, teacher of several courses since 2001 on Legal Informatics, eGovernment, Legal drafting techniques, and Legal XML. She is member of CIRSIFID part of the Alma-AI, one of the main centers of excellence in Italy and one of the leading centers at the international level for the area of computer science and law. She is the Director of Ph.D. International Program Erasmus Mundus Law, Science and Technology (http://www.last-jd.eu), coordinator of the eGov module in the Master in the Law of New technologies, Director of the Summer School Legislative XML (http://summerschoollex.cirsfid.unibo.it) organized by the University of Bologna, Ravenna, with the goal of disseminating the usage of Legal XML in the public agencies, respecting and guaranteeing the legal principles embedded in the legal document form https://www.unibo.it/sitoweb/monica.palmirani/publications	25 minutes
3.	Question time – Professor Monica Palmirani Members of the working group could ask jurisdiction-specific or more general questions relating to legislation and AI.	5 minutes
4.	Andy Beattie, Chief Parliamentary Counsel, Scotland, immediate past President of CALC –the importance of the CALC Legislation and AI working group in 2024 and beyond Andy will reflect on importance of establishing the working group and work beyond CALC.	5 minutes
5.	Dr Johnson Okello, Director of Legal Service, Senate in Kenya, President of CALC – CALC priorities for 2025 and beyond Johnson will share the priorities for 2025 and importance of the working group going forward.	5 minutes
6.	Member reflections for 2024 and takeaways for 2025 We will reflect on our work in 2024 and start planning for 2025.	30 minutes

Next meeting: Friday, 28 February 2025