

INTEGRA

Local midterm meeting

The seminar was organized in order to open up the project to three new partners, as provided for during the kick-off meeting. Also, it gave one of the original missing partners, Gerardo Caetano from Uruguay, the possibility to socialize to the project and expose his ideas. One further benefit of the meeting was that the Latin American partners could express themselves in their own language, a great addition in terms of common understanding.