Closing workshop of the PRIN 2022 'Racconta' project (Unibo & Unito)

RACCONTA

NARRATIVE COMPETENCES AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT BETWEEN INTERNAL VARIATION AND PLURILINGUALISM

JANUARY 30, 2026

Program

MORNING SESSION – AULA TRAINA, FICLIT

9.15 – 9:30	Opening – Nicola Grandi (Director of FICLIT)
9.30 – 10.30	Martin Klotz, Humboldt University of Berlin: "RUEG in retrospect – Quality of evidence in mid-size task-based corpora in the context of large(r)-scale collaboration"
10.30 – 11	coffee break
11.00 – 11.40	Silvia Ballarè & Caterina Mauri, University of Bologna: "Building KIPARLA: methodological choices, challenges, and data sharing practices"
11.40 – 12.20	Arianna Bienati, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia: "Speakers' language background in corpus metadata: Reasons and methods for a holistic approach"
12.20 – 13	Cecilia Andorno, Claudia Canuto (University of Torino), Chiara Gianollo, Nicola Perugini (University of Bologna): "First data from the Racconta corpus: communicative variables in the use of demonstratives"
13 – 14.30	lunch break

AFTERNOON SESSION – AULA PASOLI, FICLIT

14.30 – 15	General discussion
15 – 17	Project meeting: Corpus curation and corpus publication – Future perspectives for the Racconta project

FICLIT – Dipartimento di Filologia Classica e Italianistica
Via Zamboni 32, Bologna
Alma Mater Studiorum – Università di Bologna

Contact:

Chiara Gianollo
chiara.gianollo@unibo.it
https://site.unibo.it/racconta/it