

Sport & collective memories

The political use of the sporting past in Europe

31 January - 1 February 2025

Aula 13 Teaching Hub
(Campus Forlì)

Via F. Corridoni 20

Programma

31 January

10.00 – Introduction

GIULIANA LASCHI (Università di Bologna)

Politics of memory in the European Union

STEFANO PIVATO (Università di Urbino)

The obsessions with the memory of sport

11.00 – Chair Daniele Serapiglia

PAUL DIETSCHY (Université de France-Comté)

Stadia, sport and memory in Europe. An overview

ANDRÉ GOUNOT (Université de Strasbourg)

National Memory Culture Through Sporting Events: A Comparison between the German “Miracle of Bern” (1954) and the Cuban “Cerro Pelado” Adventure (1966)

Lunch: 13.00

14.30 – Chair Riccardo Brizzi

JUAN ANTONIO SIMON (Universidad Politécnica de Madrid)

The Memories of the Grande Torino: A Southern European Perspective

DANIELE SERAPIGLIA (Universidad Complutense de Madrid)

Sports heritage: Football Stadiums, Cities and Memory in 20th century Spain

ENRICO LANDONI (Università E-Campus)

Sport Hero and European Memory: the case of Gaetano Scirea against the backdrop of Poland's democratic transition

1 February

10.00 – Chair Nicola Sbeti

GIOVANNA RUSSO (Università di Bologna)

Football heritage in an European city: The case of Bologna Football Club

FRANCESCA TACCHI (Università di Firenze)

The memory of the First Women Football “World cups”: Torino 1970 and Mexico 1971

ERMINIO FONZO (Università di Salerno)

Fascism and the sport of Ancient Rome: Between mythification and historical narrative

LORENZO VENUTI (Università di Bologna)

“We will get hungarian football back on its feet”. The special relationship between Orbán and Aranycsapat

Lunch: 13.00

15.00 – Round table “Studying the Memories of Sport in Europe”

Chair Nicola Sbeti

Participants: Paul Dietschy; Erminio Fonzo; André Gounot; Enrico Landoni; Daniele Serapiglia; Juan Antonio Simon; Francesca Tacchi; Lorenzo Venuti

17.00 – Conclusion

NICOLA SBETTI (Università di Bologna)

Sport and International Politics in Europe: the end of a project