“Developing and Structuring of BA Courses in Archaeology in Iraq”

Invitation to Tender for Books Procurement

Books Procurement for the creation of 3 Archaeological Libraries in the Iraqi Partner Universities of Baghdad, Kufa and Al-Qadisiyah

20th of August 2019

Dear Sir / Madam,

We kindly invite you to submit your tender for the supply of books for creating 3 Archaeological Libraries in the Iraqi Universities of Baghdad, Kufa and Al-Qadisiyah. This book procurement is realized within the framework of WALADU Project “Developing and Structuring of BA Courses in Archaeology in Iraq”, co-funded by the ERASMUS+ CBHE Programme of the European Union, and it represents the central and most relevant intervention in the three Iraqi Universities due to the lack of books and libraries on issues related to Archaeology and Cultural Heritage

When preparing your tender, please be guided by this invitation to tender.

Tenders should be submitted in English through the following mean not later than the 27th of August 2019 at 12 am.

- a) by email to disci.waladu@unibo.it: kindly ensure that your tender are signed and stamped and in the PDF format. An acknowledgement of receipt will be sent to you accordingly.
- b) Hand delivery to the following address:
- c) Emmanuel Di Tommaso
- d) WALADU Project Coordination Team Member
- e) disci.waladu@unibo.it
- f) +39 0512097621

Part I - Project Description

1.1. About WALADU

WALADU is a three years (2017-2019) international project funded by the European Union in the frame of the Erasmus+ Capacity Building Key Action 2 in the field of higher education.

The aim of the WALADU project is to contribute to the improvement of education in archaeological and historical subjects in Iraq and to increase the opportunities for students in the labor market in Iraq bringing them in line with current EU trends and standards. To achieve these results the project team has foreseen three aims:

1. Modernization of BA courses in archaeology and ancient history in Iraqi universities providing an innovative educational offer.
2. Reinforced capacity to design teaching units, to teach and to produce innovative knowledge by the local teaching staff.
3. To foster international collaborations between the EU and the Iraq higher education institutions for the exchange of academic knowledge at any level, by framing them in a recognized and internationally regulated network.

The project workflow has been structured according to eight different Workpackages (WP). The first four WPs listed below represent the key actions to be carried out during the project lifetime:

- 1 - Analysis of needs and opportunities of the Humanities field of study and the labour market in Iraq;
- 2 - Training and transfer of know-how;
- 3 - New teaching units and internship creation;
- 4 - New BA teaching units and creation of an international network;

For more information about the WALADU project please visit the project official Website: waladu.unibo.it.

WALADU Partners – Project Consortium

The following institutions from Partner and European countries are involved in the project consortium:

1. University of Bologna (UNIBO) - Project Coordinator and contractor
2. Koç University (KU), Turkey
3. Ludwig Maximilians University (LMU), Germany
4. University of Baghdad (UoB), Iraq

5. University of Kufa (UoK), Iraq
6. University of Al-Qadisiyah, Iraq

Current Phase of the Project

The project is currently in its last phase. The following activities remain to be realized:

- Completion of the setting up of the WALADU Archaeological Libraries in each Iraqi University;
- Activation of internships for BA students in Archaeology;
- Visibility actions (dissemination of project results and impact);

Charges related to the delivery to the University of Bologna must be included in the offer. The University of Bologna must receive the books before the 31st of October 2019.

2.9 Payment Terms

The payment shall be done according to the following:

- 80% upon signature of the contract and issuing of invoices;
- 20% upon procurement of the books;

The payment terms can be changed according to the terms of the offers that will be received. The WALADU Project Consortium will promptly inform the selected tender if changes incur in the payment terms.

2.10 Evaluation and Award of the Contract

The key principles that shall govern the process of evaluation of tenders are listed as follows:

- Non-discrimination: Any discrimination with regard to tenderers on the basis of nationality is forbidden;
- Equal treatment: All tenders submitted within the set deadline are to be treated equally. They will be evaluated on the basis of the same terms, conditions and requirements set in the tender documents;
- Transparency: Detailed written records are to be kept (normally in the form of reports and minutes of the meetings held) of all actions of the evaluation panel. All decisions taken will be sufficiently justified and documented. In this way, any discriminatory behaviour can be prevented and if not prevented, then monitored;
- Confidentiality: The process of evaluation of tenders are confidential. Information concerning the process of evaluation of tenders and the award recommendation is not to be disclosed to the tenderers or to any other person who is not officially concerned with the process, until information on the award of the contract is communicated to all tenderers;

Exclusion criteria: Tenderers are excluded from participation in procurement procedures if:

- they have submitted a tender that does not meet all the requirements provided in this document, including the ones in the clause 2.4;
- they are bankrupt or being wound up, are having their affairs administered by the courts, have entered into an arrangement with creditors, have suspended business activities, are the subject of proceedings concerning those matters, or are in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure provided for in national legislation or regulations;
- they have been convicted of an offence concerning their professional conduct by a judgment which has the force of res judicata;
- they have been guilty of grave professional misconduct proven by any means which the contracting authority can justify;
- they have not fulfilled obligations relating to the payment of social security contributions or the payment of taxes in accordance with the national legal provisions;
- they have been the subject of a judgment which has the force of res judicata for fraud, corruption, involvement in a criminal organisation or any other illegal activity detrimental to the Communities' financial interests;

Selection criteria: Tenderers will be selected based on the following criteria:

- having submitted the tender that complies with all of the specifications, requirements and offers the lowest price, as well as all other evaluation criteria indicated, shall be selected;
- having the necessary economic, financial, technical and professional capacity to perform the contract;

Award criteria: The awarded tenderer will be the one who offered the best quality and price tender out of those submitted by tenderers which are not excluded and which meet the selection criteria. The awarded tenderer should:

- be in full compliance of tender to the tender specifications, bill of quantities and technical information;
- have national international experience in the procurement of books;
- Provide technical information for all the books to be supplied;

The contract will be awarded to the tenderer whose tender has been found to be in conformity with the invitation to tender. The award method will be the "best value for money" meaning that the winning tender is the one offering the best quality/price ratio., taking into account the criteria announced in the specifications.

vary (increase or decrease) the quantity of books by 5-10% depending on the prices offered by tenderers.

2.11. Evaluation Committee

Tenders will be WALADU Project Tender Evaluation Committee comprising at least 6 (six) members appointed for the purpose, 1 for each organization that is part of the Consortium.

2.12. Notification of Results

Tenderers will be notified of the results by email. Thus, it is important to provide the email of the main contact person.

2.13. Cancellation of the Contract

Cancellation of the Contract is due if the completion is delayed by 2 (two) weeks from the delivery deadline stated herein in the clause 2.8 with the condition of returning the down payment to the WALADU Project Consortium.
